by Joan Didion · RELEASE DATE: May 10, 1968.

The title embodies the peculiar threat of Yeats' The Second Coming after a time when "Things fall apart; the center cannot hold": and in this series of twenty essays, many of them previously published magazine articles, the author is an adroit chronicler of many of today's maladies. Particularly in the title piece which consists of tight sketches capturing the ad absurdum freak-out of Haight-
